

Brett Magun

Non-Executive Director

BSBA, LLB

Brett is the Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary of Cotiviti, Inc., where he is responsible for overseeing the company's legal and compliance functions worldwide.

Prior to this, Brett spent over two decades as an in-house corporate attorney providing counsel for large corporations and start-ups, both domestically and internationally. This includes serving as General Counsel to Richard Branson's Virgin Money United States entity as well as serving in various legal capacities for KPMG in the Netherlands and Bear Stearns in the US.

Brett holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Boston University and a Juris Doctor from Brooklyn Law School, where he was a Richardson Scholar.