

Kate Hill

Non-Executive Director

B.Sc. (Hons) in Mathematics and Statistics

Kate has extensive advisory and board-level experience in privately owned as well as ASX-listed companies within the tech, biotech, and medical device industries. She also has experience with other listing exchanges, including the NASDAQ in the United States and Alternative Investment Market (AIM) in the United Kingdom.

Prior to this, Kate spent over 20 years as an audit partner at Deloitte, serving both listed and privately owned clients. She was also personally involved in the transformation of Deloitte Australia, where she was a former senior partner and the first female board member at the accounting firm.

Kate holds a Bachelor of Science with honours in Mathematics and Statistics from the University of Bristol.